A large and appreciative audience, consisting princi-ally of ladies, attended yesterday the first afternoon and Mr. Webli meeting a most flattering re option from the fair listeners, who esemed to be in the highest state of enthusiasm. Madame Fleury-Urban and Mr. S. C.
Campbell asseted in the concert, and Mr. Wm. G. Deitrich made a very communicable director. Mr. Webli's execution is certainly wonderful. In his "Trembling Leaves," a light, familf it composition in the style of Ascher, and "Home, Sweet Home," a fundarie for the left hand slone, both composed by Mr. Wehll, his extraord nary powers of execution were brought into full play. An Executive Centralization of Municipal Power Proposed.

ALHANY, Jan. 17, 1866.
The city of New York will learn before many days of the legislative session have passed, that the ability and great efficiency of the well known Chairman of the ity with New York city anarrs, will have the most im-portant bearing upon the legislation of the session. Much is said and projected in a futile manner regarding the petty offices of the city and changing one politician for another as a great reform. Mr. Brandroth's fami-liarity with the radical evils of New York city has enabled him to strike at once at the root of social and political difficulties there. He proposes a bill which will be introduced for reconstructing the police courts so as to bring these important arms of justice up to a proper standard, and take them out of the control of the politicians and the criminal classes. He proposes to abolish the present police courts and establish a "metro-

A bill amending the set creating the Department of Public Pharities and Correction was taken up in committee of the whole.

Mr. Low, (rep.) moved to strike out the clause empowering the Board of Supervisors to at the salarce of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction.

Mr. Lawr (rep.) opposed the unotion. He was in favor of siving this power to the Supervisors, they being being qualified to judge. He admitted that it was proposed to increase the salaries of the Commissioners to $5,000, which he did not consider excessive, in view of their arround duties.

Mr. Low imasted that the salary should be fixed in the bill.

Mr. Sasswas (rep.) thought the present salary sufficient, and reminded the Schate that there was a very warm parie for these places has waster.

Mr. Low imasted that the salary should be fixed in the bill.

Mr. Sasswas (rep.) thought the present salary sufficient, and which ought to be left for decisions to them and their representatives. We find their representatives here saking for R, and certainly the Board of Supervisors is as safe a depository for the power as the Lagislature can be. The Expervisors of Sass York are as worthy of trust as are the Supervisors of other counties, and all that is asked is, thus as much confidence while placed in them.

Mr. Novemer did not think the proposed increase excessive or more than is justified by the enhanced price of Iving.

Mr. Downers from the supervisors and qualification or more that the taxpayers of New York desire this increase that the taxpayers of New York desire this increase he would vote against it.

Mr. H. C. Mursary insisted that this was a matter purely local, which should be left to the local authorities. This constant interference with the affairs of the city of New York is unwarrantable and unwise. The people of that great city are as capable of self-government as any the people of any other locality, and if her affairs must be managed otherwise he would be in favor of a supreme executive to be elected by the people, or which all the existing commissions and departments should be alone responsible. This persistent legislative interference has gone on until, as is shown in the theacquard of the present Mayor, more than one half of all the cost of governing the city of New York is chargeable to the account of the State commissions.

Mr. Andarws (rep.) granted that much of the taxer raised in New York were spent under commission created by the Legislature; but it will not be pretended that the same expenses would not be incurred if the commission did not exist. As to the cry of high taxtation in New York, of which so much is so frequently said, he would be prepared to show in a few days that, with two or three exceptions, taxation is lower in New York than in any other city in the State.

Mr. FOLGER (rep.) combated the idea that every interference by this Legislature with the affairs of the city of New York was taking away by so much the right of local self-government in that city. New York is use As exclusively as there is no other, and is in such a state as there is no other.
